

COOKIES POLICY

1 - Purpose of Cookies

The Cypress Company, Inc. DBA Cypress AgriTech (“Cypress”) uses cookies and related tracking technologies to support essential website operations, improve performance, analyze traffic, enhance functionality, and enable User interactions. Cookies do not provide Cypress with access to User devices beyond what is necessary for legitimate website operations.

2 - Types of Cookies Used

(a) Strictly Necessary Cookies – Required for Site functionality, including navigation, security, and form processing. Without these cookies, the Site may not function properly.

(b) Performance and Analytics Cookies – Collect aggregated information about User interactions, traffic patterns, and browser behavior to improve Site performance. Cypress may use third-party analytics providers subject to their independent policies.

(c) Functional Cookies – Support enhanced features such as User preferences. Disabling these cookies may reduce Site functionality.

(d) Third-Party Cookies – May originate from analytics tools, OEM partners, or embedded services. Cypress does not control third-party cookie behavior and disclaims responsibility for their data practices.

3 - Information Collected Through Cookies

Cookies may collect technical and usage data including IP address, browser type, device characteristics, session details, time and duration of visits, page interactions, and referring URLs. Information collected is used solely for operational, analytical, and security purposes as described in the Cypress Privacy Policy. Cypress does not intentionally use cookies to collect sensitive personal information.

4 - Cookie Duration

Cookies may be session-based (expire when the browser closes) or persistent (remain on the device for a defined period). Duration varies based on the cookie's purpose and configuration settings defined by Cypress or third-party providers.

5 - Managing or Disabling Cookies

Users may restrict or disable cookies through browser settings. Options typically include blocking cookies, deleting stored cookies, limiting third-party cookies, or receiving alerts when cookies are placed. Disabling cookies may impair Site functionality, and Cypress is not responsible for diminished performance resulting from such restrictions.

6 - Do Not Track (DNT) Signals

Because industry standards for Do Not Track signals remain inconsistent, the Site does not currently respond to DNT or similar browser-based requests.

7 - Third-Party Tracking Technologies

OEM partners, analytics vendors, or embedded services may use additional tags, scripts, or tracking tools. Such technologies operate independently from Cypress and are governed exclusively by the applicable third party's privacy policies. Cypress disclaims liability for third-party tracking activities.

8 - Changes to This Cookies Policy

Cypress may update or amend this Cookies Policy at any time without prior notice. The most current version will be posted or otherwise made available. Continued purchases, interaction or use constitutes acceptance of updated Terms.

9 - Contact Information

For questions regarding the Cookies Policy or personal information handling practices, Users may contact Cypress AgriTech at the following: accounting@cypressagritech.com or through our official website.
